

suburbanlife

BEST of the BEST
pg. 18

In addition to being a top Pennsylvania Realtor known for her attention to detail and fierce advocacy of clients, Tina Guerrieri has become an influential figure in the fight against domestic violence and child abuse. page 30

Also Inside:

People of the year, a new you for 2026

TINA GUERRIERI

Associate Broker

RE/MAX Central – Blue Bell

731 Skippack Pike

Blue Bell, PA 19422

(215) 643-3200, ext. 1803 (office)

(267) 250-7649 (cell)

<https://tinag.remax.com>

Never Standing Still

In addition to being a top Pennsylvania Realtor known for her attention to detail and fierce advocacy of clients, Tina Guerrieri has become an influential figure in the fight against domestic violence and child abuse.

TINA GUERRIERI IS A HIGHLY ACCOMPLISHED AND ADMIRABLE REAL ESTATE PROFESSIONAL, known for her infectious, bubbly personality, unwavering confidence, and deep commitment to building lasting relationships. With 22 years of experience in the industry, she is licensed in Pennsylvania, Delaware, and New Jersey, and has consistently been recognized for her exceptional work. Her attention to detail and fierce negotiation skills make her a strong advocate for her clients, whether they are buying or selling, while her passion for real estate ensures that her work never feels like a job.

Tina has earned numerous accolades throughout her career, including the Titan Club, Chairman's Club, and RE/MAX Hall of Fame awards. She is the No. 2 ranked RE/MAX agent in Pennsylvania, and she recently ranked in the top 26 agents across all brokerages in the state. Nationally, she is ranked No. 1,054 based on transactions out of all real estate companies. Tina's success is driven by her genuine love for the profession, as she finds excitement in the ever-changing nature of real estate. Every transaction and client is unique, and the constant learning process keeps her engaged and motivated.

Beyond her professional achievements, Tina's personal journey adds depth to her commitment to helping others. Having survived domestic violence herself, Tina has used her experience to fuel her passion for giving back. She recently founded a nonprofit organization called Miko's Place, which supports survivors of domestic violence, including minorities and underrepresented communities. Miko's Place offers counseling, education, safe shelter, and advocacy to help survivors break free from the cycle of abuse and rebuild their lives. Through her organization, Tina is providing the same support and strength that allowed her to thrive and is empowering others to reclaim their lives.

Tina's work and dedication to her clients, as well as her heartfelt commitment to supporting survivors, have cemented her as a respected and influential figure in both the real estate industry and the fight against domestic violence. ■